Vera

Vera, Nov. 14.- "Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people." Psalms 14: 27.

We are having cool weather. People are busy sawing wood and getting ready for winter.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Leslie Coleman is in the hospital for an operation. We do hope for him a speedy recovery.

Miss Edna Megginson continues ill. We hope for her a speedy recovery.

We were sorry to hear of the passing of Mr. Wilson Thornhill.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey and marriette visited Mr. Leslie Coleman in the Baptist Hospital on Thursday. They also visited Mr. Jack Harvey, who is in the General Hospital in Lynchburg.

Miss Harriette Harvey visited her sister, Mrs. Richard Carson for the week-end.

Mrs. Mildred Watters, who has been operated on, has returned home. She will have to stay in bed a month. Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey and Harriette visited her on Thursday.

We are glad that Mr. F. A. O'Brien has returned home from the Baptist Hospital, where he had an eye removed. He is getting along fine.

Week-end guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey were Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Craft, of Charlottesville.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Watson on Saturday night.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

It's funny how some people thrive on politics.

Flattery is still the best way to get to first base.

It is amazing how much work some folks do to avoid work.

Going to church hasn't ever hurt anyone we've heard about.

The only plan that counts for much is one that is carried out.

Men may differ in opinions but they should not dispute as to facts.

If everybody became interested in the truth, maybe we could locate it.

The most satisfying thing in life is to be able to help some deserving person.

Now that the heating bills must be paid, summer doesn't seem so bad after all.

Remember that proper etiquette in the field forbids the killing of fellow hunters.

There are two sides to every public question; the wise man tries to understand both.

It is easier to tell a neighbor the proper thing to do than to follow one's own advice.

Your life can be judged only by what you do, not by what you say you intend to do.

Do you remember how silly you were as a youth? If not, you have learned little.

Never underestimate the seriousness with which most people take themselves.

Hint to readers of the news: There is no law against thinking things out for yourself.

There is nothing gained when you do your work at night and then loaf through the next day.

Despite what you may think there is always somebody who is experiencing a tougher pull through life than you are.

The first obligation you have as an intelligent citizen is to refuse to believe criticism of other people until you prove the accuracy of rumors spread.

Interest on the national debt costs $1,084,400 an hour.
